His grandparents, Henry Andrew Addy (1855-1926) and Honorah Hurley (1858-1933), were both immigrants from County Tipperary, Ireland.

My great-great grandparents came to the USA in 1869 and 1870 along with over a million other Irish immigrants in the decades following the Great Famine. They settled in New York.

The boy sitting in his grandmother's lap is my grandfather, William Henry Yedell - known as Harry. He was born in 1908. I remember his wonderful sense of humor, twinkly blue eyes, and his musical talents.

Today, I celebrate my Irish roots, imagining my great-great-grandparents' journey and their determination to make a new life in America. - Laura Sam
